Hometown: Brush, CO

Sophomore

Height: 6'2"

Major: Communications

Winston was on the honor roll, National Honor Society and selected to the all-conference team for two years. He chose EWC because he liked the town, community, teammates, and faculty. His goals this season on the court are to set good examples and lead the team in the right direction. Something about Winston that people don't know is he likes to write poetry. He would like to graduate with his degree and work in the field of journalism. Winston would like to be a sportscaster on ESPN.
