

Library Tidbits

FEATURED

Introducing PRIMO @ your library

- ◆ PRIMO is a discovery tool that searches the library catalog, databases and special collections with a single click.
- ◆ No more guessing which database might have the information you need. Search them all with a single click.
- ◆ There is a search box on the library webpage and in every Lib-Guide.
- ◆ Refine your results by topic, resource type, publication date, author or language.
- ◆ Limit results to peer reviewed or full text online.
- ◆ For off campus access to articles contact the library for the username and password.

Bloom's Literature

Examines great writers, important works, memorable characters, and influential movements and events in world literature.

Browse characters, authors works, date, author type, literary genre and nationality.

Over 2,200 video clips.

Entries on literary topics, themes, movements, genres and authors.

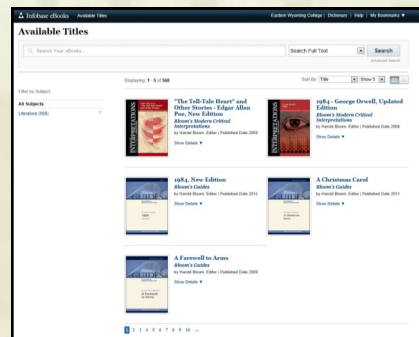

Bloom's eBooks

Over 500 titles available.

Search via full text or within a particular title.

Convenient dictionary tool.

Create an account to save bookmarks and notes.

"Research is what I'm doing when I don't know what I'm doing."- Wernher von Braun

NEWS

In September, the Library celebrated Constitution Day with a book display and bulletin board. We also celebrated Banned Books Week Sept. 22-28 with a book display, hallway refreshments and a panel discussion from our international community.

Hot off the press! New fiction titles available for checkout:
Something Borrowed, Someone Dead

By M.C. Beaton

Si-Cology 1
By Si Robertson

Deadly Heat
By Richard Castle

Plus many more!