

Library Tidbits

FEATURED

Artemis Primary Sources

Artemis Primary Sources allows researchers to uncover primary source documents in archives where they may not have thought to look, greatly enhancing their research experience.

Artemis enhances the story by combining collections and bringing to the surface new research connections across several centuries—and millions of pages of—newspapers, books, manuscripts, maps, and photographs.

“The APP Store”

Are you looking for something to read on your device? The state library has several resources to help you out.

- 3M Cloud Library lets you check out books on your device.
- OneClick Digital is available for audiobooks.
- Zinio lets you check out magazines on your device.

To use these apps you will need your library card number and PIN.

“If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language, that goes to his heart.” – Nelson Mandela

Mango Languages

Do you want to learn a new language? Do you want to travel and be able to converse with the locals? Check out Mango Languages! With over 60 languages to choose from you could travel anywhere. Simply pick a language, create a free account to track your progress and start learning.

Business2community.com

NEWS

Hot off the press! New fiction titles available for checkout:

The Skeleton Road
By Val McDermid

The Escape
By David Baldacci

The Job
By Janet Evanovich

Plus many more!

Mark your calendar for the next Freudian Sip!

The library will reopen the Freudian Sip just in time for finals week on December 10th from 9:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. We will be serving coffee, hot chocolate and doughnut holes! The student senate is helping to sponsor this event.

December Hours

After finals week we will be closed on Sundays. The week after finals, December 15-19, we will close at five. The library will be closed December 22 through January 2, 2015.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!