Discover Genealogy @ GoWYLD.net

Have you ever wondered about your family lineage? Want to do some research? Check out the following databases that are available through the Wyoming State Library.

* Ancestry Library

Provides unprecedented access to family history via documents that record the lineage of individuals from the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Europe, Australia, and more. Search census, immigration, birth, marriage, and death records and many other primary sources. (In library use only.)

* Heritage Quest

ProQuest's Genealogy & Local History Collection of 26,000+ family and local history books, the U.S. Census from 1790 - 1940 and more.

* NewsVault

Search all the Gale historical newspapers in one interface. Includes 19th Century U.S. Newspapers, Economist Historical Archive, the Sunday Times Digital archive and more.

* ProQuest Obituaries

Over 10.5 million obituaries and death notices from the complete historical runs of major national newspapers.

* ProQuest's African American Heritage

A genealogy resource exclusively devoted to African American family history.

* Sanborn Maps

View Sanborn fire insurance maps for U.S. cities and towns from 1867 - 1970. These documents are invaluable primary resource material for historical and genealogical research.

* Wyoming Newspaper Project

Discover the stories that formed Wyoming. Browse or search the more than 900,000 newspaper pages converted from microfilm to a digital format. All text is searchable, including news articles, news briefs, obituaries and other items of interest.
