

Library Tidbits

FEATURED

eBooks @ your library

The library has access to thousands of electronic books. We have a variety, whether for research or pleasure.

Audiobooks-popular reading, non-fiction, history, and self help. Download the app now!

Bloom's eBooks-drama, poetry, novels, short fiction...

Cloud Library-Thousands of bestsellers and popular authors + hundreds of audiobooks. Download the app now!

Credo Reference-975 reference books.

Ebrary-for academic research.

eLibrary-contains more than 1,000 full-text magazines, newspapers, books, and transcripts--plus thousands of maps, pictures, web links and audio/video files.

Gale Virtual Reference Library-access to more than 1,000 electronic reference titles in virtually any subject, including health, science, art, history, biography and many more.

Salem History-Great events from history, Milestone documents in American history, Forensic Science.

STAT!Ref-three dozen nursing, health care, and pharmacy resources. Stat!Ref includes full-text journals, evidence-based, point-of-care and authoritative resources. Access via desktop or wireless device. (Click accept.)

TotalBooX-catalog of 50,000 ebooks, no holds, no expirations, no limitations, no fines. Reading is free, courtesy of your library. Download the app now!

Twayne's Authors-600 full-text titles from the Twayne Literary Masters series

"We should be delighted people still want to read, be it on a Kindle or a Nook or whatever the latest device is." - J.K. Rowling

NEWS

Easter Break Library Hours

April 13, 2017
8 am to 5 pm

April 14-16, 2017
Closed

April 17, 2017
8 am to Noon & 1 pm to 4 pm
(Subject to change.)

Hot off the press! New fiction titles available for checkout:

The Lost Order
By Steve Berry

The Women in the Castle
By Jessica Shattuck

Before the War
By Fay Weldon

Plus many more!

National Library Week April 9-11, 2017

BECAUSE STUDENTS CAN'T AFFORD SCHOLARLY JOURNALS ON A RAMEN NOODLE BUDGET.

LIBRARIES
TRANSFORM