Forthcoming @ your library

A new year will see new books on the shelves.

I Am Where I Come From: Native American College Students and Graduates Tell Their Life Stories, Andrew Garrod, editor.

This book includes the autobiographies of thirteen Native American college students and explores their college experiences.

The Athlete's Dilemma: Sacrificing Health for Wealth and Fame by John Weston Parry

This title tackles the controversial issues surrounding sports including concussions, medications, and other health concerns.

Journalism After Snowden: the future of the free press in the surveillance state, Emily Bell and Taylor Owen, editors.

How has journalism changed with the advances in technology? What impact does that have on journalists themselves and investigative journalism? This book addresses those critical issues.

Look for these and more in January.

Merry Christmas!
