Beginning with the 2009-2010 academic year, the definition of an “independent student” was expanded to include any applicant who had been verified during the school year in which the application is submitted as either:

- An unaccompanied youth who is a homeless child or youth, as such terms are defined in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act; or
- An unaccompanied youth who is at risk of homelessness and is also self-supporting.

Critical Definitions

- McKinney-Vento and CCRAA Definition of Homelessness: Children who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence which includes
 - Living in shelters, motels, cars, OR
 - Temporarily living with other people because the applicant had nowhere else to go.

The education subtitle of the McKinney-Vento Act is overseen by the U.S. Department of Education.

- Unaccompanied Youth: Unaccompanied homeless youth are young people who lack safe, stable housing and who are not in the care of a parent or guardian. They may have run away from home or been forced to leave by their parents. Unaccompanied youth live in a variety of temporary situations, including shelters, the homes of friends or relatives, cars, campgrounds, public parks, abandoned buildings, motels, and bus or train stations. Also, if you are living in any of these situations and fleeing an abusive parent, you may be considered homeless even if your parent would otherwise provide a place to live.

- McKinney-Vento School District Liaisons: Under subtitle VII-B of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, every school district is required to designate a liaison for students experiencing homelessness. Homeless liaisons have a number of legal responsibilities under the Act, including identifying youth who meet the definition of homeless and are unaccompanied.
