How will I afford it?

1. Apply for admission to EWC at ewc.wy.edu by March 15*. You will receive a user name and password for you MyEWC account with your acceptance into EWC.
2. Submit official high school transcripts to EWC by March 15*.
3. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.gov as early as October 1 and by March 15.*
EWC's Federal School Code is: 003929.
Why complete the FAFSA??? Not only does it establish your eligibility for the federal aid programs (Pell Grant, Work-Study and loans), but the Hathaway Need-Based Scholarship and many institutional, Foundation and outside scholarships are based on "need," which is determined from FAFSA calculations!
4. Apply online by March 15* with ONE application for the majority of institutional and Foundation scholarships EWC offers! Log on to your MyEWC account and click the Scholarship App button to apply. Provide some general demographic information and complete academic and qualification questions. Then, see what scholarships you may be eligible for!
5. Don't forget to check EWC's website at <http://ewc.wy.edu/scholarship-list/> for any other EWC scholarships you might be eligible to apply for that require paper applications or have other requirements, like trying out for a music or athletic award. Also see our list of opportunities for scholarships awarded and administered by outside organizations!
6. Students who graduated from a Wyoming high school need to complete EWC's Hathaway Scholarship Application for Hathaway eligibility to be determined.

The Financial Aid Office starts notifying you of your awards in December and will update your MyEWC account information any time more aid is added.

- Payment plans are available through the Business Office.
- Most students have eligibility for loans and student employment.
- Don't forget to apply for other assistance, such as outside scholarships, veterans benefits, and aid from other agencies like Workforce Development or Vocational Rehabilitation.

*March 15 is a priority deadline only; the Financial Aid Office continues to review applications and awards aid throughout the academic year.

Grants are available in art, debate/forensics, music, men's golf, men's basketball, women's basketball, women's volleyball, rodeo and livestock judging. The value of each scholarship varies, but can include awards for tuition, fees, books, room and/or board depending on activity and award. Students can apply through their MyEWC account and/or the appropriate sponsor or coach.

Foundation Scholarships

The Eastern Wyoming College Foundation is the institution's non-profit fundraising office whose mission is to develop financial resources to support student opportunity, quality educational resources and the learning environment at EWC. The Foundation manages 80 endowed scholarships and 26 annually funded scholarships. Contributions have been made by individuals, families, businesses and local organizations which support student opportunity and excellence in program delivery for virtually every academic area of the college. Apply for most Foundation scholarships by completing EWC's online scholarship application via your MyEWC account. Some scholarships will require short essay answers or letters of recommendation to be uploaded on the site.
