CredoInfoLit

Assigning a research paper to that online class? On campus students have a writing project, but you don't want to spend valuable class time going over the research process? We are here to help!

CredoInfoLit is an online information literacy tool. Faculty can pick and choose which elements they want to cover and embed those in their Canvas modules or have their students go directly to the Credo page and work through the course. It covers types of sources, where to search, how to evaluate information, citations, and much, much more!

For assistance in using this resource please contact the library.

Films on Demand Nursing Video Collection

FoD Nursing has nearly 1,000 streaming videos for nursing students. They can be embedded in your online class, shown during a live course or simply linked to in Canvas. Don't want to show the entire video? Select a segment to share. Transcripts of the videos are also provided.

UpToDate

"For more than 25 years, clinicians around the world have relied on UpToDate as their primary resource for medical knowledge at the point of care.

The knowledge contained in UpToDate is evidence-based and continuously updated, but it is not merely an aggregation and report of the latest research; UpToDate presents a comprehensive synthesis of the evidence, followed by recommendations that can be acted on at the point of care. It combines an advanced publishing platform with the rigor of a sophisticated editorial process managed by a faculty of accomplished physician authors and editors, renowned leaders in their specialties.

In addition to an unparalleled breadth and depth of content, UpToDate offers subscribers mobile access options, tools and graphics, complementary patient information articles, and much more." (UpToDate.com)
