

Torrington-Wheatland Branch Scholarship Guidelines 2020-2021

1. The Torrington-Wheatland Branch of the American Association of University Women offers one scholarship annually of at least $250.00 to be awarded to a student entering any regionally accredited college, preferably Eastern Wyoming College, University of Wyoming, or Western Nebraska Community College.
2. The scholarship is to be applied to any valid educational expense (i.e. tuition, fees, books, housing, or transportation). This scholarship will be awarded in two installments, one-half of the entire amount each semester.
3. The selection of the scholarship recipient(s) will be based on scholarship, character, leadership, activities, interests, and need. The Scholarship Committee will select the recipient(s).
4. Your completed application package should include the following:
 - a. The completed application form.
 - b. Transcript(s) of all high school and college credits. Readable copies are allowed, but official transcripts may be requested if necessary.
 - c. A letter about yourself, your interests, activities, educational goals and how this scholarship, if awarded, would help you reach those goals. Please include information about your family, how many live in your home, how many family members are currently attending college, etc.
 - d. One letter of recommendation from high school, college or university instructors or counselors or employer.
5. The completed application package must be returned to the Financial Aid Office at Eastern Wyoming College, 3200 West C Street, Torrington, WY by March 30, 2019.

Review of applications will begin April 1, 2020. Recipient will be selected and notified by April 30, 2020 and will be invited to speak at a future meeting of the Torrington-Wheatland Branch.
