

EWC Federal Direct PLUS Loan Information

For Academic Year July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023

The Federal Direct PLUS Loan is a federal loan that can be used by parents of dependent students to help fund their child(ren)'s education. Only biological or adoptive parents can take out PLUS loans for a student. The loan funds are borrowed directly from the federal government. Parents may apply for PLUS loans at any time during the academic year and must reapply each year the child is a dependent undergraduate student. A Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must also be completed each year at StudentAid.gov in order to be eligible to apply for a PLUS loan.

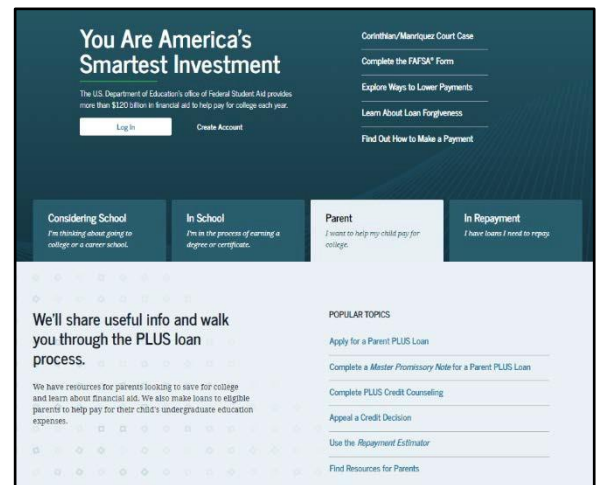

Students are encouraged to apply for Federal Direct Stafford Loans in their own name first, before parents consider a PLUS, because interest rates on the Direct loans are lower and the borrower benefits are better. Parents are then encouraged to budget their student's remaining costs for the entire academic year to determine the amount of PLUS loan needed, and submit a PLUS application to cover those costs. PLUS loans are applied electronically to the student's EWC account and the student's remaining charges. If a refund is expected once the student's balance with the school is covered, the parent can choose to have the refund check sent to him/herself OR disbursed to the student directly.

2022-2023 PLUS Loan Facts:

- Interest Rate: 7.60% fixed (2021-2022 rate)
- Loan Fees: 4.228% (through September 30, 2022; changes on October 1, 2023 because of sequestration)
- Credit Check Required: Yes (cannot have adverse credit)
- Annual Loan Maximum: Total cost of attendance minus all aid resources and loans received
- Lifetime Loan Maximum: None
- Repayment Begins: Payments of principal and interest begin 60 days after the loan is fully disbursed. Requests to defer payments while the student is enrolled may be made during the application process. If the PLUS loan has already been processed, a deferment request may be made to the loan servicer.
- Repayment Terms: Up to 10 years (other repayment plans available based on special circumstances)
- Eligible for Federal Loan Deferments, Forbearances, or Loan Forgiveness: Yes; work with loan servicer
- Eligible for Federal Consolidation: Yes

Steps to complete a PLUS loan:

1. The student (and parent) should complete the 2021-2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at StudentAid.gov if he/she hasn't already done so and submit any additional documentation his/her school requires.
2. Go to the Parent tab at StudentAid.gov and to the first link under Popular Topics, Apply for a Parent PLUS Loan. Sign in with the PARENT'S information to apply for the loan (only one parent needs to apply). The parent will need the Federal Student ID (FSA ID) used to sign the student's FAFSA or will need to apply for the FSA ID before signing in. Follow the instructions and complete ALL fields. Remember, the parent is the borrower; the application will request the student's information later on the form.
 - When the PLUS Request has been submitted, a credit check will be conducted by the Federal Direct Loan Servicer.
 - Credit checks are valid for 180 days.
3. Once the application is complete, the Parent also needs to complete a Master Promissory Note for the Parent PLUS Loan. Please be sure that the same parent who completed the PLUS loan application is the same one to complete the MPN.
 - The Master Promissory Note (MPN) is your promise to repay loan funds you receive.
 - The MPN may be valid for 10 years (schools' policies may differ); however, a new credit report will be initiated by the Department of Education each time a PLUS Request is completed.
 - The parent will need to provide a driver's license number and the names and contact information of two personal references who reside at different addresses.

Please note: If the parent is denied a PLUS loan because of adverse credit history, the parent may request reconsideration or obtain an endorser for the loan. If the PLUS is then approved, the parent must complete Direct PLUS Loan Counseling. If the PLUS is still denied, the student may be eligible for additional unsubsidized Stafford loans in his/her own name. Only one parent needs to apply for and be denied a PLUS loan. However, if one parent is denied a PLUS loan and the other is approved for a PLUS loan, the student is not eligible for increased Stafford loan limits.
